Water Gas in Bad Odor.

Water gas has received a severe backset in England. A Wolverhampton letter says: It is becoming more and more apparent that a good deal still remains to be done before the practical difficulties in the way of using water gas as a fuel can be said to be entirely overcome. It must be regarded as an unfortunate thing for the immediate future of water gas in this country that an occurrence has happened this week which goes far to substantiate some of the casualties. It would seem that we have scarcely progressed so far beyond American and conti-nental practice in regard to this fuel as some authorities have made haste to declare.

BUTTER AND EGGS GROW FIRMER.

Oyster Season Opens Fair, and Fish Supply Below Demand.

THE EXPOSITION PLORAL DISPLAY

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCE.)

FRIDAY, September 6, 1889. Retailers of market basket materials report no improvement in trade over last week. At truit and vegetable stalls, grapes, ronsting ears and tomatoes are reported cheaper, and peaches scarce and higher, The supply of good peaches has not been up to the demand for a week past.

Very fine cauliflowers are on the stalls, and also, the first fruits of the new crop of pineapples, which are unusually fine. Good home-grown cantaloups have put in an appearance the past week.

Eggs are on the advance, and a choice article is fully 2c per dozen higher than last week in a jobbing way. Nearby poultry is very scarce, scarcer than for years. The bulk of stock in this line with which our markets are supplied comes from Chicago. Choice grades of creamery and country butter are firm, and the drift of prices is upward.

The Oyster Bobs Up.

The oyster season opened this week and made a fair start, though the weather was at first too warm for any great activity in this line. Advices from sources of supply indicate a short oyster crop this season, and a difficulty in meeting demand is anticipated by packers. The supply of fish is not up to the demand, particularly for salmon. A leading dealer says fish are not worth as much here as at sources of supply, and that the business is "only run for glory at this time." Herring are the only fish in supply equal to demand. Staple meats at retail stalls do not change

Prices vary very little for the past year, notwithstanding a steady downward drift of live stock. Prime beeves are 2c per pound lower than a year ago, but tenderloin steak and rib roast of the best quality are the same. Tallow, hides and rough meat are lower, but fine cuts are unchanged the past year.

Beauty and Fragrance. In floral lines there are no changes worthy of note. Trade is quiet, but there is a good time coming and it is not far away. The first frosts which nip the outdoor flowers bring good cheer to those who are protected against such influences by large conservatories. Two of our leading flor.sts have taken all the space in floral hall of the Exposition building, and did credit to themselves and the city by the fine display on opening night. This display will improve for a week to come. Whatever the Exposition may lack in its exhibits, there will be no lack in the display of beauteous things from garden and conservatory. from garden and conservatory.
Following are retail prices of market basket filling, as furnished by leading dealers:

Ments. The best cuts of tenderloin steak range from 20 to 25c, with last figure for very fancy, which are very often no better than the 20c article; sirloin, best cuts, from 18 to 20c; standing rib roast, from 15 to 20c; chuck roast, 10 to 12c; best round steaks, 15c; boiling beef, 5 to 8c; sweet breads, 20 to 50c per pair; beef kidneys, 10c apiece; beef liver, 5c a pound; beef Ridneys, 10c apiece; beef liver, oc a pound; calf livers, 25c apiece; corned beef from 5 to 10c per p.und. Warm Weather in the Northwest Paralyze the Grain Pit-Everything Weak and Lower - Discouraged Longs Throw Their Burdens Down-Park Active and Unsettled.

CHICAGO-The wheat pit was dominated to day by bearish influences, and the feeling be came weaker as the session progressed. Prices receded to the lowest level touched this week, there being a decline as compared with yesterday's close of a full ceut in the more deferred deliveries. It was so apparent from the start that if the market was to get out of the rut it had been in for a couple of days it would have to break, and with the weather fine and news from the East and abroad depressing in the extreme, nobody was surprised at the initial de-cline of 1/6/1/6. Instead of a cold wave coming the weather in the West was warmer and generally clear, which allayed all fear of frost for the present and weakened prices on the whole the present and weakened prices on the whole grain list.

For a time speculative trade gragged, but toward noon the unloading by discouraged and tired longs was followed by short selling on a pretty large scale and the market sagged rapidly. The principal local feature was the solling out of long wheat late in the session. The weakest future in the list to-day was May. It broke like and closed at the bottom. December showed a net loss of ic, and September and October declined 1/2. There was a corresponding decline in all grades of cash wheat.

An active business was done in corn during ing decline in all grades of cash wheat.

An active business was done in corn during the early part of the day, trading being unusually heavy around the opening, after which the pit became quiet and active by turns. Fluctuations were frequent within 14@% range. The feeling developed was weaker and transactions were at lower prices. The local crowd was long, and as the frost predicted for last night did not materialize, offerings on the opening were heavy. Initial trades were 14@ 14c below the closing of yesterday, and under liberal offerings a decline of 14c more was recorded. The market then reacted a little on buying by shorts, ruled weak and closed 14@14c lower than yesterday.

Oats were weaker and 160% c lower. The weather was fine and cool, and the corn market weaker and lower. This induced fair selling and caused a depression in prices, as the demand on the whole was light. demand on the whole was light.

A fairly active trade was reported in mess pork, but the feeling was unsettled. Prices ruled irregular, rather easy at the opening, but soon advanced 12½@15c. Later they gradually receded again to inside figures, but near the close rallied again and closed comparatively steads.

the close railied again and closed compara-tively steady.

Trading in lard was only moderate. The market was easy, early sales were made at 2)49 5c decline. Later the market was stronger with a moderate inquiry from shorts, and the decline was recovered. Toward the close the feeling was easier and the market closed—quiet at medium figures.

A fairly active business was reported in short ribs. The feeling, however, was unsettled and prices ruled irregular. The market opened steady at yesterday's prices, but soon weakened and finally closed quiet.

BOOMING ASPINWALL

The Electric Railway for the Rising Town on the West Penn.

CHANGES AT TORRENS STATION.

Shops to be Removed to Walls and the Cattle Yards to be Enlarged.

CHEAP PROPERTY OUT SECOND AVENUE.

A charter has been applied for for an electric road from the Allegheny Cemetery gate, connecting with the Citizens' Traction, to run to Sharpsburg and the new town of Aspinwall, on the West Penn Railroad. This will boom property in that district. The promotors of the road, among whom may be mentioned Henry Warner, are also interested in the new town, where it is proposed to make one of the handsomest residence places in the county. Quite a number of lots have already been sold, and several handsome dwellings are projected.

Charles Gumbert, who is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad shops at Torrens, said yesterday that all arrangements had been made for the removal of the machine and transfer shops at that place to Walls station. He added that the transfer business the past year or two grounds at Torrens were not equal to the work, ence the necessity for the removal. Work has been begun at Walls for the transfer build-ing, and it will probably be completed and the removal made this fall. The removal of the hops will enable the railroad company to enlarge the stockvards, so as to occupy the ground ontinuously from East Liberty station to Fifth avenue extension, at Point Breeze, and embrac ng all the territory between the railroad and Penn avenue.

The Michigan copper lode, one of the best mines in the Rawhide district, 100 miles north of Cheyenne, Wyo. T., was sold last week to the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Com-pany, of Pittsburg, for $25,000. Ore will be hauled to the company's eastern works for treatment.

Prof. Edward Orton, who occupies the Chair of Geology in the Ohio State University, advises that natural gas in Western Pennsylvania be only used for domestic purposes, holding that the present lavish expenditure in factories and for all purposes will exhaust the supply in a few years. In Ohio, he says, a portion of the Findlay field is already exhausted, and the Mercer county field is disappointing expecta-tions. Prof. Orton states that the Columbus Gas Company is hoarding its supply which it gets from the Fairfield-Licking field at Lancaster and Hadley Junction. He advises the use of meters, and says the Findlay people have so wasted their gas that they are on the verge of a shortage already.

The gentleman who is conducting the $400,000 deal in manufacturing property said yesterday: "Negotiations are proceeding slowly, but, I think, surely. I am in hopes of being able to report success in a very short time." He added that the deal was not for a new plant, as stated, but for the purchase of an old one.

There appears to be a revival in the mortgage ousiness, the result, no doubt, of the return home from their vacations of a number of cap italists. Forty-six were recorded yesterday the highest number in one day for some time, The largest was for $17,000, followed by one for $15,000, two for $10,000 and the rest from $3,500 down to $225. A broker who deals largely in mortgages said: "This business is growing. It is the safest and most popular investment of the day. Large amounts of money that for merly found their way into stocks and oil are being placed in mortgages. But there is plenty of it left-and home money at that."

Work is being pushed on the Second avenue electric road. The prospect of early rapid transit is drawing attention to property in the Hazelwood and Glenwood district. A Fourth avenue gentleman said: "There is a specula tion in property out there at the prices owners are offering it at. I know of several properties that could be sold at a handsome advance over what they cost six months ago. The early payments are an inducement, and are leading quite a number of people to invest. The district is filling up very fast. It possesses attractions and advantages not usually found so convenient to the central part of the city, all of which will be multiplied by rapid transit.

It is a remarkble fact, observes the Iron and Steel Trade Journal, London, that in the manufacture of different kinds of machinery, the Americans can beat us in price. Wages in the United States are about 50 per cent higher than in this country: materials are from 25 to 50 per cent dearer; yet the finished machines can be put on the market cheaper. The Americans cannot send out machines to neutral markets any cheaper than is done by our manufacturers; but it is surprising that they can at least meet us in price.

Local Stocks Dulf, but Develop Strength All

Along the Line. Business at the Stock Exchange was of small proportions yesterday, footing up only 110 shares—100 of La Noria and 10 of Philadelphia Gas-but the broadening tendency of the mar-ket was reflected in higher quotations for almost everything on the list. Insurance stocks were among the strong features, 36 being bid for 100 Citizens' as an example. Forest Oil continued its upward movement. It was wanted at 105. Natural Gas of West Virginia also made a slight gain. The tractions held their ground and a little more, except Pittsburg, which was weaker.

For the new stock of the Pleasant Valley Railway 1816 was bid and 2016 asked, without transactions. La Noria occupied its old place, 13% and 15% from which it seems impossible to nove it. It is the impression that the next change will be toward a higher level. Electric received a bid of ol 36, but it was held a point higher. There were no offers of Switch and Signal on bids of 22½ and 23¼ holders think-ing it worth more money. Bids, offers and sales were:

the Berrowing Demand. Several of the banks did a fair discount business yesterday, mostly at the 6 per cent rate. Anything less was on strictly first-class collateral and short time. "The change in the weather is making people feel like doing something," remarked a financier, "and I look for a steady heavy drafts from the country. The scarcity here was caused by requisitions for pay rolls. Business between banks was a good average, the clearings footing up $1,920,845.70, and the balances $364,616.22.

Shorts Attempt to Cover and Cause a Little Spurt in Oil.

The feeling in the oil market yesterday was of a mildly bullish sort. It opened at 97%, advanced to 98%, declined to 97% and closed at 98%. The advance was caused by a few of the shorts covering. It seemed to come from New York and Oil City, and was one of those periodical spurts which possess no particular significance, except to show the sensitive nature of the market. Trading was light at all of the Exchanges, and notably so here.
It is said that Pittsburg brokers have fewer

It is said that Pittsburg brokers have fewer orders than ever before in the history of the trade, As these constitute the hist of business, this absence is an element of discouragement and apprehension of continued dullness. Field operations are not particularly important. The Jefferson Oil Company's No. 1, on the Montag farm near Jefferson Center, 400 feet south of Campbell and Murphy's No. 1, is dry. This is toward Saxonburg, and makes wells drilling in that direction look extremely dublous. A report from Evans City says the Kanawha Oil Conipany has just completed its first well since the recent organization. The well is located about two and one-half miles northeast of the town, and is good for 75 to 100 barrels, with a good sand.

well is located about two and one-half miles northeast of the town, and is good for 75 to 100 barrels, with a good sand.

The Jefferson Center field presents no new features. The Yeokel maintains an hourly production of about 30 barrels. Two new locations have been made, one by McCalmont & Co., a few feet from their No. 1, which did 200 barrels the first day, and the other by the Jefferson Oil Company west of Campbell's No. 1.

The McCalmont Oil Company has purchased the Smith & Co. well and also other property, consisting of another drilling well and a three-acre lease. The consideration is private, but is believed to be a good round sum. The first named well made 200 barrels the first 24 hours.

The Raccoon Oil Company bought in a very good producer on the Bubbett farm in the Murdocksville field a few days ago. It began flowing before the drill was through the sand and is good for about 100 barrels a day. The well on the James Saxton farm, owned by the Union Oil Company, was also drilled in and will be a light producer, not more than 30 barrels a day.

The following is the report of the operations in the Liuma field for the month of August: Wells completed, Lima district, 12: Findlay, 8; North Baltimore, 25: St. Mary's, 1; Gibsonburg, 2; total, 71. the profits accrued on the rise of the previous days of the week induced the seiling of long stocks, and the room traders, who were generally of a bearish temper, soon joined in the seiling. The general demand for stocks, however, and the willingness of some of the large operators to replace their sales at slight concessions, prevented the early decline from going far, and the course of prices was soon changed to the upward direction.

The coal stocks became the strong feature of the market in the afternoon, and the buying of those shares on the expectation that either the dividends will be increased or the capital stocks enlarged was very pronounced. The Northern Pacifics took a secondary position in the market, and even the grangers which were supported by the western contingent were rather backward. The Southern stocks, however, awoke from their lethargy and were largely traded in, while Richmond and West Point became one of the leading active stocks and in the rise occupied a very prominent position. The reports of the splendid condition of business in that section of the country was mostly responsible for the improved position of those shares in the market. The trusts were quite duil, and little or no interest seems to be taken in them at present.

The opening was active and strong, though considerable irregularity existed, and Wheeling and Lake Erie was down // per cent. The pressure to sell was directed principally against Northern Pacific preferred and Atchison in the early dealings, and the market was very feverish, while most of the list shaded off from the opening figures. Richmond and West Point was the strong feature, however, and its sharp rise in the first hour rallied the list though the Grangers continued weak until the afternoon. The coal stocks then came to the front and the selling movement exhausted itself. The market gradually quieted down and the close while strong was quite duil. There were a few fractional losses as the resuit of the day's operations, but the majority of the list is hig

The danger to human life is the obstacle in the way of water gas use to which I specially refer. On Monday a Hull jury sat to consider the case of one Joseph Cade, a joiner and carpenter, of New York, who was killed on the first day of the Yorkshire Agricultural show. Cade was employed at a stand occupied by the Yorkshire Water Gas Company. He was at work there when a purifier exploded, and an iron plate, forming its lid or cover, was blown up into the air to an immense altitude. It fell upon the poor joiner and killed him immediately. The jury censured the company. What is worse for the water gas boom than this verdict is the growing conviction that not individual carelessness, but ignorance of the properties and management of water gas, is the cause of such casualties. It would seem that we have scarcely
